

MA'AGALIM

"De'u ki hashirim ha'ele kulam
Chovkim hem olam
Nov'im me'ahava lechol hakayam
Vechi eyn bahem davar
Nigle o ne'elam
Shelo yuchal be'oram"

Know that all these songs
Encircle the world
They result from love to all that is
And there is nothing in them
Revealed or unseen
That won't be contained in their light

"Ko Amar" song book (63,39)

Tips for reading Transliterated Hebrew (hebrish)

There are only 5 vowels:

A – as in the word father

E – as in egg

I – as in bee

O – as in for

U – as in flute

Words that have an appostrophe (') are to be read as two separate words.

For example:

Ne'elam = ne + elam – both e's are pronanuned separately.

1. A Drop

Drip Drop

Where doe's the shell drop and vanishes
Into the great ocean, sky blue

Joyous moon becomes full and is seen with lightning eyes

From afar they play just for us

One more drop you'll see we're almost there

To that same corner, to the melody

This melody is ours

Drip Drop

Where doe's the tear drop and roll

Into the great ocean, blue sky

Joyous moon becomes full and is seen with lightning eyes

From afar they play just for us

One more drop you'll see we're almost there

To that same corner, to the melody

This melody is ours

2. IN THE BEGINNING

In the beginning there was sky
In the beginning the ocean was blue
In the beginning I had day and night, night,
Many hours like the sand
In the beginning there was the earth
Grass soft as a gift to her, a gift to her
In the beginning

A garden in Eden a garden with no gate
From the sky good rain pours
God was merciful with dawn
And he gave you in my custody, you to me

In the beginning I had sun,
In the beginning the birds were singing for me
In the beginning the fruit was ripe till the evening, evening
Berries and seeds
I had a night
The winds played and sang a lullaby, lullaby
For you and for me

A garden in Eden a garden with no gate...

3. SEEING FAR SEEING TRANSPARENT

It was so narrow
I had to spread my wings and fly
To a place that maybe like on mount Nevo
You can see far, you can see transparent

A Human like a tree planted on water
Seeking for roots
A Human like a burning bush in the face of the sky, In him fire burns

Then I lost my path my life became a riddle
Thirsty like a nomad in the desert
For a word of truth that can give the strength
To face tomorrow

A Human like a tree planted on water...

A fire was burning in me, I went seeking For days I stormed
I returned to my home to find you are with me
Till the path comes to an end

A Human like a tree planted on water...

4. CYPRESS

I have seen a Cypress
Standing in a field in the face of the sun
In the heat, in the cold, In the face of a storm

On his side the Cypress leaned
He didn't break but leaned his top to the grass
Alas, in front of the sea he stood tall and green

Here's a Cypress alone in face of fire and water
Here's a Cypress alone rising up to the sky
Cypress alone & strong
If only I could learn the path of one tree

And I am like a baby
That breaks and can't stand in front of the sun
In the heat, in the cold , in the face of a storm

Here's a Cypress alone in face of fire and water
Here's a Cypress alone rising up to the sky
Cypress alone & strong
If only I could learn the path of one tree

5. I WISH

I wish that from a cloud a rainbow will come upon us

I wish that this world can still be reformed

I wish that a day will rise out of the blazing storm

I wish we will not lose the gift forever

I wish that the desert will grow grass and weed

I wish we will sit once more in the shaded fig tree

I wish we will not hurt and one will love his brother

I wish that the gates of heaven will reopen

I wish that east and west will merge, I wish

I wish that we will renew our days here as in ancient times

I wish that one nation will not raise sword on another nation

I wish that we will not forsake the path of hope

I wish that man will be merciful by evening

I wish that there is one chance for Love

I wish we will not hurt and one will love his fellow

I wish that the gates of heaven will reopen

I wish that east and west will merge, I wish

6. IT HAPPENS

It happens, you must walk, walk
Nothing is known, not the year nor the week
You must move on, move on
And to think that I could do it all again
But man, it happens

It happened, it took me by surprise
Nothing is known not the year nor the week
You must move on, move on
And to think that I could do it all again
But man, it happened

8. NIGHT

Above the tree tops the clouds witness
When the moon nods its head to the garden
Gives a sign "you can sit"
There in the corner the same bench
Collected all the dew
And got wet "take a towel"
Says the night and silences

This night, he doesn't give any sign
He blinds, he directs the traffic
With lots of fireflies
He tells tales and he thinks
That children believe it
Such a night

In the windows the lights
Were put out long ago
And two green eyes send
A symphony of moaning
Minor scale
At the babie's cabin
There are occasional weepings
The heart breaks, hey mother, wake up
Says the night and lies down

A yard hides its face, stops its breath
For a visitor is coming
The moon circles its mouth in such a lovely smile and combs its hair
You are bold, says the night and laughs

For we all are, yes we all are

And if one of us has left us

If we only know

If we will know how to silence our rage

Even in the heaviest heat
I knew that the rain will come
I saw a bird on my window
Even midst storm and cold

At times it is hard
But generally a kind word
Makes me feel good immediately
Just a kind word or two, nothing more

Even on a main crowded street
I saw a man sitting and playing music
I met happy people
Even on narrow dirt paths

At times it is hard...

I always left a path for hope
Even when love faded away
I dreamt about brighter days
Even in nights of no sleep

At times it is hard...

11. BECAUSE OF THE WIND

What ever will happen I will make a change
I will make my dream come true
Those who carry bad news and smite
Will not change my essence

Me, you and the god by my side shall win
Not because of strength
But because of the wind blowing my back
Just because of the wind in myself, in my mind And in my soul
Just because of the wind in myself
In my blood and in my soul

What I have to say, I will scream out
They will hear it all the way to moon
Who ever says "this is not the way"
I will not forget
One day I will prove my rightness

Me, you and the god by my side shall win
Not because of strength
But because of the wind blowing my back
Just because of the wind in myself, in my mind And in my soul
Just because of the wind in myself
In my blood and in my soul

12. A MAN WITHIN HIMSELF

A man, within himself lives
Within himself lives
Sometimes he's sad and bitter
Sometimes he sings
Sometimes he opens a door to greet a friend
But mostly a man closes within himself

A man within himself lives
Within himself he lives
Or in a rush city or in some village
Sometimes a storm passes and Brakes his home
But mostly a man is a stranger to himself

Oh you, you, it is so good you came Without you the house is empty and
The night is cold
So I protect you as good as I can
And still, will I find you here tomorrow?
A man is close to himself
A man within himself lives

The dove spreads its wings
The dove soars in the open space and

Her wings are light

Further, further
Hovering above the water she still awaits
High above the Gilboa Mountains
Above the clouds the road is long

14. SOMEONE

Someone, someone takes care
Takes care of me from up there
He came and lit a few stars
And they are falling one by one

We rotate in two different pathes
Day and night in their length
Tired and hungry we await a sign
In the lanes of dust and time
We shall meet at the end of Roads and questions
We shall meet at the end of many days
Of many nights
I know that you are coming closer now
The spring has passed, summer assembled
And the rain returned

Someone, someone takes care
Takes care of me from up there
He came and collected a few stars
Placed them back one by one

15. SHORES

Shores are sometimes a longing for a river
I once saw a shore that was left by a river
With a broken heart of sand and stone
And the man, the man can also be left stranded and with no strength just like a shore

The shells too
Like the shores, like the wind
The shells can also be sometimes longing
For the home we always loved
For the home that was and only the sea
Sings his songs all alone
Amongst the shells in a man's heart
His youth sing for him

16. WHY TAKE THINGS HEAVILY

Why should I take things heavily?

I have new things in mind

I have an imagination that helps me

Sometimes to forget

Why should I take things heavily?

There is much to love beforehand

I always have friends that help me to be happy

Let me shout, let me learn

Let me laugh and let me hear

Let me live and let me make mistakes

Allow yourself to forgive

To simply love

That's what I wanted to write

Take it slow

And soon you'll be able to run from the start

17. AFTER TWENTY YEARS

After twenty years you keep on playing
An old guitar you still tune
Amongst the strings to the best of songs
Yet to be written
After twenty years I am no longer a child
My youth is over, the king has grown old
Only you are still with me, with you I return once more to myself

Still the same melody still the same taste
Preserved like excellent wine
A melody is played inside me, hatching from between my fingers, go now to the street

Once more the song is rising, once more till the end of life the fruit of my yearning
Days of pomegranate and vine
And a wind still sings in me, and the same string shivers, twenty years

Still the same melody, still the same taste...

After twenty years I used to have a friend
Can you hear the song of Ascents?
I'll sing till the day I die
The melody carries my prayer

18. FERRIS WHEEL

A man builds his home in blood and sweat
From his night and day
And in a brief moment, in mighty storm
His world gets destroyed

Another year and another year
Time is a ferris wheel
And tomorrow is another day that from its peak we will soar high and far
A cycle gets opened every year a
And a cycle is forgiven every year
And even if nothing changed
Tomorrow we will surely laugh
Upwards when it is good and it is not the End of the world when downwards
If it is bad there is always choice
Time is like a ferris wheel

A man always loves with innocence and Passion in his days and nights
Suddenly like a wild unknown wind
His dream disappears

Another year and another year...

Myrrh, perfumes and incense
A threshold at your feet

The night slowly descends

A melody of love

Your head is full with dew
Your mouth facing the morning, oh rose
I will pick it for myself

20. ON OUR VILLAGE TUDRA

In our village Tudra
In the heart of the Atlas mountains
We would take the boy who Reached the age of five
A crown of flowers we make for him
In our village Tudra
A crown we put on his head
For he has arrived to be five
All the kids on the street
Would throw a big party for him
For he has reached the age of five
In our village Tudra

And than, the boy who reached the age of five
In our village Tudra
Would be taken into the synagogue
And on a wooden board
Writing with honey the alfabet
All the letters made of honey, and we tell him
Sweety, Lick it!
And the Tora (the holy teachings) in his mouth would be as sweet as honey
In our village Tudra
In the heart of the Atlas Mountains

21. A SONG WITH NO NAME

For my song is a voice in the wind, my extended letter
The path of my life, my longings
The echo of my prayers
For my song is a leaf in the wind, scattered, foresaken
It's the soft light, opening in my nights
It is you who walk towards me

As I wonder pictures and souls pass through me
And names, names
You are coming, walking towards me

Ay... darkness around, I wish you were listening Maybe, maybe, maybe,
You are coming, walking towards me

On my path landscapes and melodies walk with me
And faces, faces
You are coming, walking towards me

Ya... Silence around, and if you are listening
Maybe, maybe, you are coming, walking towards me
Maybe, maybe you are coming, walking towards me

For my song is the breeze of the wind
My open window
The fountain of my strength, laughter and cry
The end of my agony
You are coming, walking towards me

24. WHITE DAYS

White long days
Like the rays of summer's sun
A great peacefulness of loneliness
On the river's open space
Windows wide open towards a silent blue
Straight tall bridges
Between yesterday and tomorrow

It is so easy to bear you silence
Empty white days
My eyes learnt to smile and ceased already
To urge on a clock's board the racing thins
Straight and tall are the bridges
Between yesterday and tomorrow

My heart got used to itself
And is counting mildly its pulse
And in face of the sweet soft pace
Makes peace, gives up and calms down
Like a baby singing its lullaby
Before closing his eyes
While his weary mother stopped singing
Fell asleep

25. THINGS I WISH TO SAY

There are things I wish to say
That do not comply
The words I have chosen are not the best
Deeper then the seas are the secrets
I fail to understand
Maybe I never will

I did not walk all the pathes I wanted
And on the paths I took I surley made mistakes
And every joy I rejoiced was diluted with sadness Every joy I had
As if I was asking for something that was lost

Dreams I dreamt still awake in me
Their broken pieces in my eyes
Wash away in tears from my face
And uncountable agony nights
That I've drowned in wine
As a lost man on my evil path

But on all the pathes I have never lost ours
And even if at times the winds stormed around
I loved you and we were good, good to our limits
And at times it was bad
And I did not love you less

26. A BEDOUIN LOVE SONG

Sounds of flute he would send
Into the sands of the desert
He caressed her soft body
And the wind took it all
Stop being like the sands
I want you like a rock
He promised not to wander again like the sand

When the winds caressed him
He held strongly at the tent's pole
Shutting his ears not to hear
Or breathe the sound
You're a nomad whispered the desert
You're buried in a narrow tent
And the sheeps bleated in the canyon
Like a flute

Wo hu wo hu wo hu wo
A voice is calling him to wander
Wo hu wo hu wo hu wo
A voice is calling him to wander

And when the floods broke out
He forgot all that he had promised
To the sounds of the flute
He reached his hands in the storm
In a crazy dance with the bulrush
He was wept a way drunk like sand in a storm
Even the rocks spread their wings like a heron

And when he came back on his horse
To deepen the tent's pole
On the tent's cloth in thread and colors
She embroidered words, welcome back traitor
Hold strongly at the tent's poles
I too have been drifted a way by a wondering storm

Wo hu wo hu wo hu wo
A voice is calling him to wander
Wo hu wo hu wo hu wo
A voice is calling him to wander

28. A SONG OF A COMMON DAY

If I have strings they are quiveringly played
If there is worry in me it is almost bare
If there is love in me it will be said quietly
If I have roots they slowly prolong
You see how suddenly I shiver
The wind often changes its direction
We tried to leave but I know
We remain year after year

In your room the sun is designing
Lines and stripes of light on the walls
For you each morning I collect
Small details small joys of a common day
Do you respond are you answering me?
Maybe in your ears my clocks strike
Maybe you reply maybe you are like me Allas, in your face my face are reflected

If I have strings they are quiveringly played
If there is worry in me it is almost bare
If there is love in me it will be said quietly
If I have roots they slowly prolong
This common day is a day of grace
And in its grace this lines are written to you
Take my hand now appease me
In such a common day our pathes cross

The lightening will pass above you
A sheep and a doe will be the witnesses
That you stroked them and kept on walking

And your city is distant
And not once you bowed down in worship
To a green grove and a laughing woman
And a rainy tree top

Walking around in the old city
Noises are coming from every corner
I already know, already know my way
The way to the gate of mercy

I don't look around, don't listen
I am a dreamer, I always was
But I already know, I already know my way
The way to the gate of mercy

Live once, only once
There is a point, there is no point
With might, without might, the gate of mercy
Come together with me
Come from within the fear
Because you are also a part
Of the gate of mercy

The signs above the stores
Are watching over the streets
Inside my heart there is a scream and it is big Show me the gate of mercy

Live once, only once...

You took my hand in yours and told me
Come, let's go to the garden
You took my hand in yours and told me
Things you can see from there
You can't see from here

You played for me a song on the guitar and your voice shivered
A wind rose in me, a wind sang and time stood still
And I still remember every taste, every smell
The field patch in the light of the moon
The Jackel voice from the canyon
And the heavy fruit in the orchard
Things you can see from there
you can't see from here

I was alone and I lost my way
And you came, you came right on time
I was alone and I lost my way
Things you can see from there
You can't see from here

You gave me your hand
You showed me a path to many things
You brought a smile as pretty as a flower

Things you can see from there
You can't see from her

I can see him completely old and white
He's a stray star, he's a stray star
That approaches here now
The day shall come
The day will come playing in his flutes

The day will come, the day will come
And we shall be together

You will be my mother, you will be my mother
I am your good little child
You will call my name, you will call my name
Boy and girl will dance outside
The day will come, the day will come
Maybe it is already near by

When the day will come
When the day will come
We'll walk in a new golden light
You will be good, you will be good
Pouring milk and honey like once before
You shall be near, you shall be near
And I shall hold your hand excited
The day will come, the day will come and the Sweetness will come out of the strong

40. HOMELAND LESSON

Back then in school a picture on the wall
And in it a farmer ploughing the land
In the background cypress, pale summer's sky
The farmer will grow bread for us
So we can get big

And the teacher says, soon comes autumn
In homeland lesson she shows a squill
The first rain will come now, rich with drops
Like a transperant vale on the face of the vally
Spreading out its fields

So it was, gentle simplicity
So it seemed in our childhood
That was beautiful

In our imagination there were many wonders
The hummers played, the plough sang
There are vine growers and there are farmers
A land of shepherds
So it seemed in our childhood
That was beautiful

They meet shortly and separate forever

Together we'll grow old under a laughing tree
Together carve a stick together grow apart
Later we will need the same old fight
That we engraved with pain at the youngest age

Everything will be different, the frozen water
The Phone won't answer just stary Calles
I'll embroider your name in the frozen water
Instead of Bach we'll play Chopin,
Fixed improvisations

Together we'll grow old, in the dark we'll try
If we succeed we'll be relieved if not, then what Yes, together we'll stumble on the big rock
Together without balance, together in the world

Everything will be different...

Together we shall stop, together we'll be asked
We won't go if we don't want, together we'll insist
Under a tree maybe straberry
We will shrink to dance
Step, a moderated step, together we won't fall

You know, mother
We are all children of life

I see you as a warm home and a family
Clear light in the windows that you open
I am free but restless

My eyes are open so I can see the sky
So I can see an ocean's blue, a tree's green

My shadow and me went on our way
The sun stood roughly like this Once I lead and once the shade on the path
Clouds gathered in the sky
Drops of rain started falling
My shadow gathered in me
I kept walking alone

The wind was shaking
The fear was dripping and penetrating
My shadow shivers in me
Frightening more then ever
He asks, where are you taking ?
I reply, where are you escaping to?
Why always protected walls?
Why shadow when there is light outside?

Let us fly high you will be my wings
To an imaginary connection
That up to know seemd impossible
Let us jump, soar and fly
Into the connection of body and shadow
Enough running away
Into what we always wanted to forget

48. COME

Come let's scatter the veil of fog
Come let's stand in the light
And not in the shade
How long will we continue to escape
Into these games of power?
It's o.k to cry sometimes
When something breaks inside of you
Tell me a bit about the moments of fear
It is so much easier to be scared together

When cold winds will storm outside
I will send you warm fire
One day you maybe you'll stop running
Midst the shadows of the soul

Come let's scatter the veil of fog
Come let's stand in the light
And not in the shade
How long will we continue to escape
Into these power games?
It's o.k to shiver sometimes
When something wonderful happens inside
Tell me a bit about the moments of happiness
Untill the morning will rise above us

When cold winds will storm outside...

49. A JAPANESE LEGEND

At 5 o'clock a hunter got up and left his house
He marched to the forest and loaded his bow
Till evening he turned, his way unsuccessful
He was both hungry and thirsty Agitated he turned to the village and there a couple of swans in the river
White and beautiful, straight and loving Without delay he sent an arrow in one

The tired hunter put his head on the pillow
An unknown dream came haunting him
A tortured girl came bursting into the house
In her little hand a feather
Her two beautiful eyes watching reprimand
What sin, what crime did my White beloved commit ?
Tomorrow walk along the river

At 5 o'clock a hunter got up and left his house
He marched to the forest and loaded his bow
A white swan saw the hunter with her eye
She sent her beam and tore her own flesh
In front of him, she dived down in front of him

All the world is silence, all the world is silence

50. THE SPARK OF LOVE

Everyone lives in a different world
The diversity is so big

What I feel inside no one feels like me

What you think is deep I think is flat

What you see as closed I see as open

What I see as white you see as black

When the darkness goes down on me
The light shines on you

A dream for you is terror for me

Peace for me is war for you

Where I'm going to you will arrive as well

All the roads go up to the same sky

Where you are going to I will arrive as well

But without the spark of love
Nothing will start

Oooo How a wheel turns

Yes, in a masque ball
Between a man and his contrary
A woman cast a die

The same story circles and returns corners of the city when a man gathers his cards and sings Halleluya

61. THE SPRING AND OCEAN BALLAD

We shall sing to you an ancient hymn about a spring a naughty spring
His water ware so fresh, his waves were so blue above the golden sand
He would sparkle in the spring time and kiss its origin. He would cross fields of grain
He would quench the thirst of a wondering man and to the bending tree he would give his liveliness

But in the depth of his soul he yearned and he poured his longings to the sun and the moon
He aspired to the mystery and desired the dream but he did not know to what

One day, shiveringly, he asked the God of all rivers: make me big I wish to be a cascade
I want to flow and tide in a wild dance
I aspire to wander far
Powerfully move windmills
And carry golden bridges
I wish to be endlessly & immeasurably deep
And carry ships on my back

And he poured his longings
To the sun and the moon
He aspired to the mystery and desired the
dream but he did not know to what

The God heard the spring and gave him all he wished and led him to the sea
The sea with his white foam swallowed the spring's song and his destiny was sealed
The Ocean is big the spring small
His sweetness salted his song was lost and Will not quench the thirst of a wondering man
And only one small fisherman could hear the spring's cry as he wished to get out

Once more in the depth of his soul he yearned and he poured his longings to the sun and the moon
He aspired to the mystery and desired the dream but he did not know to what

So tonight, oh tonight with you I stay

Two years later they return with no answers
People live in stress
Looking for a reason to breath
And between hate and murder they are speaking about Peace

If the bird will fly why should the sea care?

66. WHO FOR LOVE

The one who's destined for dance, is born for the dream, who's destined for dance

A single sail sails at seas

The one who's born for dance

Is destined in the dream

Till the candle dies till the end of the song

He will not be satisfied

He rises up again clasped to a good wind

More and more to burn to dance

In the dance till the flame dies

Till the last fragment of light extinguishes

The one who's destined for dance

Was burn to love, who's destined for dance

The one who's born for love is born a flame

Who's destined for dance

Till the candle dies, returning like the song

He will not be satisfied

He rises up again clasped to a good wind

More and more to burn to dance...

The one who's destined to love was born to love, who's destined to love

I will give you children's laughter
That will scare away all the fears
With my two hands I will give you my whole life

69. WRAPPED IN COMPASSION

Dark blue light, it wraps you in compassion
Floating, you daydream, flying in high worlds
Maybe you know it all
And see all the secrets exposed
You must be very calmed
It wraps you in compassion

Rest within your mother
She will always provide it all
When your day will come
You will have a place to fall
Finally you will come out to the world
And instantly you will feel pain
Strong light is hitting the face
And you start being hungry

Don't hurry, don't hurry coming out
To the moment of truth
Don't break, at the end you will come to me
When I'll take you in my arms
I will always love, it will surely hurt
Because even if god guards
Out side it can sometime burn

You are kicking again
You are losing your patiance
Inside of me you sprout
And weaving your identity
Finally you will come out to the world
And instantly you will feel pain
Strong light will hit in the face
I will wrap you with compassion

70. A SONG FOR SHIRA

Speak now my child I hear you
The entire world listens to your murmur
Speak my angel I know
That your voice will not always be heard

Speak naked lips, speak eyes
As long as milk is dripping from your smile
Embrace all my fears with your two hands
Embrace big bears in your sleep

A new good world I shall give you
With your blue look you already find out
How important it is to see suddenly
Half a moon
Winking yellow, yellow from the darkness

Be small nothing will harm you
A butterfly ribbon tied in your hair
Be small nothing will ascape you
I will be big for you as well

Speak naked lips, speak eyes...

At the flowers that bloom in the garden
At the flowers of Yakinton in our little garden
Watches the moon each night

Says the moon to the clouds
Give a drop and a droplet to the gardens
Let the Yakinton bloom in our little garden
Thus says the moon to the clouds

The rain that dripped on my window
Sang a happy story to the flower in my garden
The Yakinton answered in joy and happiness
To the rain that dripped on my window

And we will see the white flower
And in honor of the Yakinton
My son will sing a song
And there will be great joy in our garden

The lightning you see

With amazement looked to the yard
On the neighbours porch
A little fairy was sleeping
Amazed he thought, is it a fairy or a dream?
Another unfinished story from last summer

When a fairy, a prince and a king dance
A princess with a frog a rabbit and a dwarf
Sing till dawn dancing hand in hand

His little heart was trembling
But he had to see all these wonders
He hurried out of the house
Wishing he can find the little fairy
But look, a mystery, the fairy is already gone

When a fairy, a prince and a king dance
A princess with a frog a rabbit and a dwarf

She knows me from the beginning, mine and hers
She has to be smart, my mother
And I sing this song for her

You spoiled me, you brought me
Mother, mother you spoiled me
You have brought me, you

How many days I have spent with her, my mother
How many tears I've wiped with her
Mine and hers
How many things I've discovered with her
My Mother
How many hopes I have placed with her Mother, mother...

You've always been with me even when I was alone, I will always be with you my Mother Sometimes I get in trouble my Mother
You probably read it between the lines
Mine and yours
Why do you worry and don't go to sleep
How can a mother not trust her own son?

Mother Mother you breast fed me...

Let there be light
He meant that it wouldn't be dark for him
He didn't think that moment about the sky

In the eyes of our lord
And he saw it with his majesty's eyes
And thought this is well
He didn't think in that moment about the humans, lots of humans

But they already started thinking of Themselves without leaves
And in their hearts was starting to design
A plot, a plot of pain

The good lord said in his heart
The good lord
But they already became the majority Goog lord

Light rising in the morning on a distant lake, remember?

Yes, I remember

And I shall not cease nor silence

Light that announces the reveille and the sunrise, remember?

Just to see it one more time

I need nothing more than that

Sun, bring the sun if my sky is cloudy

I am closing my eyes but the sun is in me

Light at noon on the ground, remember?

On the smooth water

On the seeds and standing corn

Light descends with evening

On the fields of my life

Remember?

I still remember, this is my day's light

Your day's light

Sun, bring the sun if my sky is cloudy

I am closing my eyes but the sun is in me

Light descends at evening, sun

Light at noon, sun

Light rising in the morning, Light

Cause life is beautiful that way
Tears, a tidal wave of tears
Light, that slowly disappears
Wait, before you close the curtain there is still another game to play
And life is beautiful that way

Here with his eyes forevermore
I will always be as close as you remember from before
Now that you're out there on your own Remember what is real and what we dream is love alone

Keep the laughter in you eyes
Soon your long awaited prize
We'll forget about our sorrows
And think about a brighter day
Cause life is beautiful that way

there's still another game to play
and life is beautiful that way

145. GUARDED DREAMS

Somewhere deep inside of us
Voices and memories are concealed
Many visions we have already forgotten
Melodies and books of wonders
All the memories from past days
The first dreams
And each word of mother and father
That has been said so many years ago

Somewhere deep inside of us
Voices and memories are concealed
Many visions we have already forgotten
Melodies and books of wonders
The marvelous world of our childhood
Drowsing inside in the shade of sounds
Is with us till the day we die
Hidden in hills of words

And sometimes a remnant of scent
Or a familiar sound or the tip of a word
Restores a flowering garden to you
Brings you back to the starting point
And once more you are dreaming like a child
And once again you are as innocent as before
You are in the Azure
All is kept nothing is lost

146. COME TO RIO

Let's dance till dawn

Let's sing strong all the way to the sky

Let's dance to the moon light

Come, the carnival already started

Come with me, now the time is flying

Come with me till where the heart takes you

Let's dance till dawn

Let's sing strong all the way to the sky

Let's run away for a day or two

Let's take a plane to Brazil

Come to Rio, we'll forget everything for now

Let's be happy with all the Brazilians

Let's dance till dawn

Let's sing strong all the way to the sky
